Score Key

Mostly As: You are an Adventurer

You will excel at working in a dynamic environment where innovation, risk taking and quick deliverables are rewarded quickly. You like generating lots of options and alternatives and abstract thinking is your forte. You are not a particular stickler for time and will show at work when inspiration strikes you. You tend to leave your work desk unorganized. Selling something to clients is much more interesting for you than servicing to them. Variable pay packages and recognitions motivate you to give your best. You also tend to be overly-optimistic, and more likely to take risks that land you in hot water.

Suitable Careers for You: Business, Marketing & Sales, Information Technology, Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics, Transportation, Distribution & Logistics, Public Speaking

Mostly Bs: You are an Anchor

You are primarily concerned with order and arrangement at work. Job Security and a stable work environment is of utmost importance to you. You will get to work early and leave work late, diligently organize your files and papers in order to make sure none go missing. You will also go to any lengths you can to ensure you don't lose your job or clients, as any such loss would feel like a devastating detriment to you. You are very meticulous and detail-oriented at work and great at anticipating problems before they come to pass. You are also an analytical thinker and a natural planner and organizer. Others can rely on you in this unpredictable world. You are also a person of predictable habits, resistant to change. You tend to work slowly because diligence takes time.

Suitable Careers for You: Government & Public Administration, Human Services, Management & Administration, Law, Public Safety and Security, Manufacturing, Health Science, Education and Training, Finance

Mostly Cs: You are an Avant-Garde

You like to daydream and imagine the possibilities and wonders of the world. You immerse yourself in imagination and fantasy, yet remain grounded enough to turn your dreams to reality. You are willing to be different and change the status quo. You like your own company best and thrive at work where you have to deliver solo. New ideas, fantasies and art and depths of human emotions excite you. You are also very sensitive to environment and adverse human behaviour. You also struggle to live in the present, your mind invariably wandering to possibilities of the future.

Suitable Careers for You: Hospitality & Tourism, Arts, A/V, Technology & Communication, Agriculture Food and Natural Resources, Scientist, Architecture & Construction, Artist, Writer
